

1-26-15 CCA Meeting Minutes

Old Business

Secretary's Report: Minutes from 11-24-14 approved

Burn Party - Kathy Huckleberry is reserving the Samish Community Center for Sept. 12. Members only this year to cut down on liability. Food will be purchased at Costco. Raku kilns: CCA's plus Kathy's=2

Erika Herman brought up that we had discussed helping Candace out in the purchase of a pug mill last spring and had not followed through, hence the email . Please respond ASAP. Thanks. The board and attending members voted unanimously in favor.

No new information regarding the Teri Silva legacy project. However, it was earlier requested that those who had knowledge of her contributions to the art community come forward and share their anecdotes with Marguerite Goff <teapots@dogday.net> It would also be helpful to provide any known publications with her work.

New Business

Treasurer's Report: $8,677.23 in savings. Income from Schack fees: $500-$600, Expenses, ~$150

Discussion on how best to use our funds. Some ideas were to donate to local community or nonprofit organizations, to promote arts in the community, and /or to provide workshops or discounted workshops for CCA members. Members, please bring ideas to the Feb. meeting.

Allied Arts Show: discussed purpose and outcome of show and whether the cost might better be used for membership to WCA. Dinah will look into whether they actually have a group membership option.

May's meeting will be the 18th so as not to interfere with Memorial Day.

Announcements:

Feb. 6: Bellingham Art Walk and opening of the new Dakota Arts Store, on Cornwall

Next meeting: Feb. 23 at SVC, 7pm Dinah will provide a demonstration on teapots.
